Note: This Direction is not effective unless it is dated, signed and delivered to the Plan Administrator on a date no more than 90 days after the death of the retired member.

I am the surviving spouse, within the meaning of the Pension Benefits Act, of the deceased retired member identified in Part B of this Form. My deceased spouse was receiving variable benefit payments under the Pension Plan identified in Part C of this Form at the time of his or her death.

I did not, prior to the death of my spouse, waive my entitlement to the death benefit in regard to my deceased spouse's variable benefit account under section 39.1.1(14) of the Pension Benefits Act.

I have received information from the Plan Administrator about my entitlements under the Pension Benefits Act and my options in regard to my deceased spouse's variable benefit account.

I understand that if I sign this Direction and elect to continue receiving variable benefit payments from the Pension Plan, my entitlement to the variable benefit account balance will be on a locked-in basis, even if I should decide in the future to transfer such funds out of the Pension Plan in accordance with any transfer rights under the Pension Benefits Act.

By signing this Direction and returning it to the Plan Administrator, I elect to continue receiving variable benefit payments from the Pension Plan rather than receiving the balance of the variable benefit account as a lump sum payment or transferring the amount to a registered retirement savings arrangement.
