FSRA is actively reviewing all FSCO regulatory direction, including but not limited to forms, guidelines and FAQs.

Until FSRA issues new regulatory direction, all existing regulatory direction remains in force.

Lester Wong, FSCO's Interim Deputy Superintendent, Pensions

October 24, 2014.

Toronto (Ontario) — Effective October 18, 2014, Lester Wong was appointed Interim Deputy Superintendent of Pensions at the Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO).

Lester has extensive experience in the pension industry, working with both private and public sector pension plans. He brings a wealth of technical skills as he moves from his role as Chief Actuary at FSCO into this new position.

Lester leads the Risk Based Regulation project, which is a major transformation in the way FSCO regulates pension plans. He developed a case study on the Risk Based Regulation Framework with the Toronto Centre, a non-profit organisation that promotes financial stability and access to financial services around the world. He has delivered this case study at several Toronto Centre conferences which has enhanced FSCO's reputation globally.
