

You are here: Home > Automobile Insurance

PRINT

FSRA is actively reviewing all FSCO regulatory direction, including but not limited to forms, guidelines and FAQs.

Until FSRA issues new regulatory direction, all existing regulatory direction remains in force.

Automobile Insurance

For Consumers | For Industry

In Ontario, automobile insurance is regulated by the Financial Services Commission of Ontario, a regulatory agency of the Ministry of Finance.

Follow FSCO on social media

- About Automobile Insurance >
- Enforcement Actions >
- Forms >
- Licensed Representatives Listings >

What's New |

- Important Changes to Auto Insurance
- Ridesharing and auto insurance
- Gender on Driver's Licences

Understanding Auto Insurance

- What's in a standard auto insurance policy?
- Where can you purchase auto insurance?
- How insurance rates are set
- How to save on auto insurance

Complaint Process

How to resolve a complaint about insurance

After An Auto Accident: Claims Process

- What to do after an auto accident
- How does your insurance company assess fault?

Publications & Resources >

Related Information >

Archives >

Careers >

Explore FSCO

Contact Us >

 Scheduled Online Service

Disruption Notice

Please consult our outage schedule for more details.

What do the coverages mean?

- Financial Literacy Portal
- Checklist - Ask the Right Questions about Auto Insurance

- What to expect if you've been injured
- If you don't have your own auto insurance

Auto Insurance Fraud: What you can do

- Common auto insurance scams
- Staged auto accidents
- Tips for avoiding tow truck scams

More Resources

- Quarterly Auto Insurance Rate Approvals
- Renting an auto? Protect yourself
- Motorcycles, snowmobiles and other motorized vehicles
- Auto insurance consumers' Bill of Rights

Back to top

Page: 3 | Find Page: