

You are here: Home > Mortgage Brokering > Frequently Asked Questions

PRINT

Frequently Asked Questions for the Mortgage Broker Industry

The Mortgage Brokerages, Lenders and Administrators Act, 2006 requires all Mortgage Brokerages, Administrators, Brokers and Agents to be licensed to do business in Ontario.

Click on the links below to view frequently asked questions on the Act.

- The Act
- Types of Licenses
- Getting Licensed
- Enforcement Action
- Licensing Requirements
- Business Requirements
- Real Estate Brokers and Agents
- Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest

FSRA is actively reviewing all FSCO regulatory direction, including but not limited to forms, guidelines and FAQs.

Until FSRA issues new regulatory direction, all existing regulatory direction remains in force.

Follow FSCO on social media

About Mortgage Brokering >

Complying With the Act & Regulations >

Consultations & Proposed Legislation >

Education >

Licensing >

Enforcement Actions >

Publications & Resources v

▶ Bulletins

▶ Brochures

▶ e-Blasts

▶ Financial Literacy Portal

▶ Frequently Asked Questions

▶ Government of Canada
Resources

▶ Mortgage Fraud

▶ Newsletters

▶ Issue #29

▶ Webinar Resources

Careers >

Explore FSCO

Contact Us >

 Scheduled Online Service

Disruption Notice

Please consult our outage schedule for more details.

