

- What's New
- Newsletters
- FAQs

Home » Service Providers » Service Provider Licensing Guide

As of December 1, 2014, only service providers licensed by the Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO) will be able to receive direct payment from auto insurers for specific listed expenses provided to statutory accident benefit claimants.

Typically, these businesses are health and rehabilitation clinics, as well as providers of examinations and assessments.

FSCO has compiled the following information to help service providers and their Principal Representatives learn more about service provider licensing requirements.

Apply Now For Your Licence

How FSCO is Regulating Service Providers

Read about why and how service providers are being licensed by FSCO.

Make Sure You Are Complying With The Law

Find out more about the requirements that service providers will need to meet to be licensed by FSCO.

Additional Service Provider Resources

Find out more about the resources available on FSCO's website

How To Apply For A Service Provider License

Get important information on the licence application process and deadlines.

The Service Provider Public Registry

FSCO will be publishing a public registry of information on licensed service providers.

Learn More About FSCO

Learn more about FSCO's role and mandate.

Back to top

Page: 3,797 | Find Page: